

Best Practices A practical newsletter for people ending homelessness.

President Biden Announces Proposed FY23 Budget

This week, President Biden announced his proposed Fiscal Year 2023 budget. It includes large increases for homelessness and housing, including a $363 million boost for Homeless Assistance (the largest increase since the program was first ramped up in the early 1990s) and a $4.7 billion increase to the Tenant Based Rental Assistance program.

Steve Berg, Alliance VP for Programs and Policy, outlines what these proposals mean for homelessness spending.

Read: "What the President's Proposed FY23 Budget Means for Homelessness"

VA Announces Grant and Per Diem Program Awards

The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs has announced new Grant and Per Diem \(GPD\) Program awards, beginning May 1, 2022. Totalling approximately $64.7 million, the funds will allow construction of new buildings and renovation of existing transitional housing facilities.

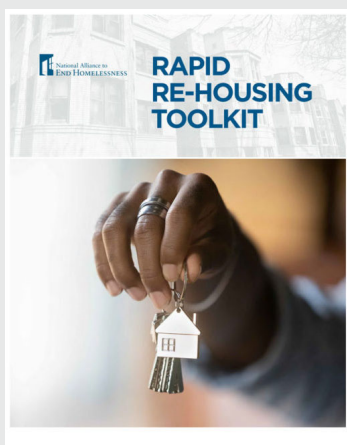

Learn More About the GPD Program Awards

From the Alliance Blog

- What the President's Proposed FY23 Budget Means for Homelessness
By Steve Berg
- Recognizing Women Experiencing Homelessness: A Women's History Month Spotlight on Downtown Women's Center
By NAEH
- COVID-19 Cases are Slowing – But Our Efforts Shouldn't
By Sharon McDonald
- Making Housing for Everyone a Reality
By Steve Berg

Featured Resource

Rapid Re-Housing Toolkit

Facebook

Twitter

endhomelessness.org